

Navigating Cancer?

Let Us Guide You Every
Step of the Way

A cancer diagnosis can be overwhelming - emotionally, physically, and logistically. At MetLife, we're here to make it easier with our Cancer Support Program, designed to guide you and your loved ones through every step of the journey.

From the moment of diagnosis, we assign you a dedicated case manager, a trusted guide to help you:

Access second medical opinions
(in-person or remote)

Find the right medical facilities for your care

Navigate seamless approvals and paperwork

We also provide:

Home nursing services when needed
Hassle-free medication delivery
Cost-efficient treatment planning

Find out how we can support you throughout your recovery journey with
