Forever

A lifetime promise of financial security

HELP WHEN YOU MOST NEED IT

Providing financial support for our family is a responsibility we all take very seriously; however, sometimes life can be cruel and makes it very difficult to keep the promise of providing our loved ones with the security of a shelter over their head and food on their table. Today, you may feel healthy but no one knows what tomorrow may bring. Giving yourself and your family a financial safety net should the unexpected happen to you is now very easy. In fact, for a small cost of under USD 1 a day, you can promise your family an income of USD 1,000 per month for a guaranteed minimum period of 20 years in case an illness or accident prevent you from working.

Make your Forever promise today and provide your family with the protection they need.

Benefits of Forever

Benefit Period

The promised monthly benefit will be paid for the insured's lifetime with a minimum guaranteed benefit period of 240 months (20 years). Should the insured outlive the guaranteed period, MetLife will continue to pay the monthly income as long he or she is alive. In the event of the insured's death during the guaranteed 20 years, the designated beneficiary will keep on receiving the income for the remainder of that period.

Permanent Total Disability due to Accident or Sickness

Some injuries and sicknesses may lead to permanent total disability and can have a huge impact on families' financial well-being. With Forever Plan, you can make sure that if such regretful events happen, you and your family will still be able to cope with financial hardship resulting from loss of income.

Permanent Partial Disability due to Accident or Sickness

When an injury or sickness results in permanent partial disability within 180 days from the date of the accident or the sickness, the Forever Plan will help families maintain their standard of living by paying a guaranteed monthly benefit or a percentage of the monthly benefit as per the below schedule of benefits.
